Your letter of 16 September to the Director has been referred to me for reply.

There, of course, is no basis for furnishing you with copies of documents relating to members of your family or to your friends, acquaintances, or associates. As to your request for documents relating to you, we will consider that request further and see what can be done in response.

Sincerely,

Freedom of Information Coordinator

Mr. William E. Colby
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Colby:

The reply from [REDACTED] of the General Counsel Office cannot be considered a satisfactory response to the questions raised in my letter to you of 27 February 1975. I still regard the matter as unresolved.

Therefore, I herein request access to all Agency records, files, and other documents relating directly or indirectly to myself, members of my family, or any of my friends, acquaintances, or associates.

I make this request under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act and ask that you give it your immediate attention.
